

Harbor Workers Present Demands

Adjustment Commission Strives Hard to Prevent But Fails

Port Tie-Up

James Matthews, business agent of the Tide Water Boatmen's Union, yesterday sent to the boat owners operating in New York Harbor the new demands of the men. At the same time Stephen Condon, of the Lightermen's Union, made his demand.

the commission believes it can induce the men to send the demands they are now making to arbitration and avoid the threatened tie-up of the harbor on March 14.

Robert P. Bass, chairman of the adjustment commission, was in communication with Paul A. Vacarelli, international vice-president of the Long impossible to do anything until the men received definite guarantees that they can be assured that they will get the November scale of wages. Then it was explained, there will be time to take up the new demands and even

New York for Boston yesterday. He is expected to return here to-morrow night or Thursday. T. V. O'Connor, international president of the longshoremen, who was expected in the city yesterday, kept in touch with the Percy E. Anderson, a drug importer and his wife, Mrs. Emily Maxon Anderson, are again in court. Twice before this couple have publicly aired their grievances. The first time Mrs. Anderson obtained a separation with alimony at the rate of $2,600 a year. The second time a jury dismissed the cross suits for divorce brought by husband and wife.

Now Mrs. Anderson is suing her wife in the Supreme Court for a divorce, mentioning Ernest M. Walker, a real estate ate man. He bases his action on raid made on Mrs. Anderson's apartment, where, it was testified yesterday, Vickers was found. Willie Bankert, a drug broker, one of the riders, testified that following the raid Vickers called Anderson "a four-flasher" and "a big stiff."

Mrs. Anderson denies the charges. Her husband and says the raid was "frame-up." She is also suing some of the persons who took part in it for illegal entry. The trial will be continued today.

11

ns

THOMES

You will find some unusual real estate opportunities in the "Farms and Suburban

Advertising Pages of next it a point to look for these tisements—you'll find them

 -while reading.
